

The Development of Musical Abilities and the LongGold-Project

Workshop on Friday, March 27th, 2020

Hanover University of Music, Drama and Media

Senatssaal, Seelhorststraße 3, Hannover

Morning Chair: Reinhard Kopiez	How the LongGold-Project works
9:30	Welcome by the Vice President Science HMTM	Eckart Altenmüller
9:40	Introduction to the LongGold-Project	Daniel Müllensiefen, Reinhard Kopiez
10:00 - 10:45	The battery of tests and questionnaires (with demos)	Nicolas Ruth, Daniel Müllensiefen
10:45 - 11:00	Overview of psychTestR, a package for creating adaptive tests and questionnaires	Peter Harrison (screencast)
11:00 - 11:30	How to design a new test in psychTestR (interactive session)	Peter Harrison (screencast), Frank Höger, Klaus Frieler
11:30 - 11:50	Coffee break
11:20 - 12:10	Collect, process and analyse long-term data	Klaus Frieler
12:10 - 12:30	Models for the analysis of long-term data	Daniel Müllensiefen, Klaus Frieler
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch (sandwiches & snacks available)

Afternoon I Chair: Nicolas Ruth	First Results of the LongGold-study
14:00 - 14:15	Is human Musicality one coherent factor?	Viola Pausch
14:15 - 14:30	The influence of musical training and other factors on subjective theories of musicality	Miriam Eisinger
14:30 - 14:45	Personality and musical Taste	Nicolas Ruth
14:45 - 15:00	Personality, musicality and music grades	Hsin-Rui Lin
15:00 - 15:15	The development of musicality, academic achievement and general cognitive abilities	Daniel Müllensiefen, Klaus Frieler
15:15 - 15:30	Coffee break
Afternoon II Chair: Daniel Fiedler	Other longitudinal projects and opportunities for collaboration
15:30 - 15:45	Music and Personality (Lübeck)	Hsin-Rui Lin, Johannes Hasselhorn
15:45 - 16:00	A musical long-term study at the University of Bremen	Veronika Busch
16:00 - 16:10	International longitudinal projects	Daniel Fiedler, Daniel Müllensiefen
16:10 - 16:50	Discussion: Key questions for future musical longitudinal studies	Leitung: Daniel Fiedler
16:50 - 17:00	Tea Time
Afternoon III Chair: Miriam Eisinger	Implications for schools and teaching
17:00 - 17:10	Musicality as a topic in the music curriculum: A new set of teaching material	Mareike Weiser
17:10 - 18:00	Barcamp : The Importance of psychological and educational research for school practice	Miriam Eisinger, Mareike Weiser, Daniel Fiedler
19:00 - late	Dinner at the restaurant Bell'Arte at Sprengelmuseum	Adresse: Kurt-Schwitters-Platz 1

For any queries contact: Viola Pausch (Viola.Pausch@hmtm-hannover.de, +49 163 7128697)